Damage Assessment Summary for Kyaukpyu:
(Based on satellite imagery recorded on morning of 25 October 2012)

Summary of main findings: A total of 811 destroyed building structures were identified on the eastern edge of Kyaukpyu city, likely caused by arson attacks occurring less than 24 hours earlier on 24 October 2012. This area of near total destruction measures 14.4ha in area and included both normal buildings (633) as well as 178 house boats and floating barges adjacent on the water. There are no indications of building damages immediately to the west and east of this zone of destruction.
Kyaukpyu on 9 March 2012

Strong indications of extensive fire burn scar on eastern edge of city as detected on morning of 25 Oct.

Limit of building destruction

House boats and floating barges
Kyaukpyu on 25 October 2012

- Zone of total building destruction (14.4ha in area)
- Limit of building destruction
- 633 Destroyed buildings
- 178 Destroyed house boats and floating barges
- Zone of total building destruction (14.4ha in area)
Kyaukpyu on 25 October 2012

Zone of total building destruction (14.4ha in area)

Limit of building destruction

178 Destroyed house boats and floating barges

633 Destroyed buildings

Zone of total building destruction (14.4ha in area)
Kyaukpyu on 9 March 2012 (with damaged sites marked)

- Limit of building destruction
- 178 Destroyed house boats and floating barges
- 633 Destroyed buildings
- Zone of total building destruction (14.4ha in area)