Dear Ms. Minky Worden and Ms. Jane Buchanan,

Thank you for reaching out to Samsung. I am writing this letter on behalf of Mr. Oh-Hyun Kwon, Vice Chairman and CEO of Samsung Electronics, in response to your letter dated October 10, 2013.

Samsung is engaged with the International Olympic Committee on important human rights topics. We support its position that sport is a human right and the Games should be open to all spectators, officials, media, and athletes, regardless of race, gender, or sexual orientation.

As a Worldwide Olympic Sponsor, we honor our partnership with the IOC and respect its authority in governing the Olympic Games and working with host countries to create successful global sporting events.

We believe in the spirit of the Games and its unique ability to unite the world in a way that is positive and inspirational.

Thank you again for your correspondence.

Best regards,

Younghee Lee
Executive Vice President
Global Marketing, IT & Mobile Division
