

Information about Gender-Based Violence for People with Disabilities

Places to get help in Zambia

In Zambia there is a law called the Anti-Gender Based Violence Act.

It says you can get help if someone does very bad things to you.

There are places called one stop centers that give you help with your health and the law all in one place.

Police stations have special police men and women to help you. They work in the Victim Support Unit at your local police station.
