Dear Parents:

According to a notice from the higher education authorities, during the “Saka Dawa religious festival” and “Moon festival,” teachers, pupils and other staff at our school are strictly prohibited from participating in any kind of religious activities. As ongoing supporters of school programs, parents are expressly requested not to allow their children to engage in any superstitious or religious activity, and to understand that they have a responsibility not to engage in such activities themselves.

Jebumgang primary school
May 27, 2017

Stamped ‘Lhasa Municipal Jebumgang Primary School’